

Community Commands

Bear One Another's Burdens

Galatians 6:2

Help your buddy fix his problem.

Galatians 6:1a

Christian brothers and sisters sometimes are caught by _____ by Satan's entrapments only to find they have slipped into _____.

What should we do when we find a brother or sister _____ in _____?
Gently " _____ " him.

Mark 1:19; Ephesians 4:11; Hebrews 13:20, 21

We restore fellow believers by helping them _____ their sin damage, _____ them for kingdom work, and _____ them to do God's good will.

Watch out for the mud yourself.

Galatians 6:1b

We all can be tempted when we get _____ to _____.

Self-awareness of our own _____ to muddy morality will help keep us on guard so we _____ to the danger of the slippery ditch.

Hook up your chain and pull.

Galatians 6:2

Helping each other _____ our burden blues fulfills

What is _____?

Luke 19:10; John 13:14; John 13:34

Jesus' law is _____ for each other because of our _____ that fills us with love for each other.

Remember, it could happen to you.

Galatians 6:3-5

The knowledge of our own _____ and _____ should be sufficient to prevent us from becoming _____.

If we think someone is having problems, we're not to be _____ on him or her as _____ to us, but we're to be _____ that person up to be _____.

When we help someone get out of their ditch, we enable him to start _____ his _____ once again.

What do I do with this?

Galatians 6:2

Carry one another's burdens; in this way you will fulfill the law of Christ.

Fellow Christians can also slip up and get stuck in _____.

The community of believers helps the brother or sister get out of their _____ ditches or _____ ditches and get on with properly _____ of their _____.