A New Year Reminder: Encourage One Another

Hebrews 3:12-14

Our Corporate Calamity

Hebrews 3:12

Our motivation to encourage each other results _____ from a basic _____ that _____ to be encouraged.

Hebrews 3:7-11 was written to _____ to Christians with Jewish roots.

God wanted them to _____ in their faith so they wouldn't _____ to their Jewish practices and ideas.

The message for us _____ in 2023-24 is pretty much like the message to _____ in 1495 B.C. and to the _____ in 70 A.D.

A tension occurs when we choose the pleasure of _____-interest (_____) vs. pleasure of _____-interest (_____).

Our Corporate Faith

Hebrews 3:13

We encourage each other _____ because every day is “_____”. Each day of life is a _____ day of _____.
Our expressions of interest in each other and for each other are to encourage each other to _____ and to _____
_____.

Why do churches worship together? For _____ encouragement.

We do not find a safe haven in the church if we are _____ from each other.

Group worship is _____ for people who _____ about God, are _____ about God, and are _____ in God.

Thus, the safe haven (the church) is designed to be _____ and _____ by God who is _____ and
_____.

Our Corporate Christ

Hebrews 3:14

Word study: “companion” in Christ

Verb form (metecho) of noun (metochos): “_____”

To be a companion of (share in or partake in) Christ means that we are _____ with Christ.

We are partners with Jesus when we _____ in Him with our first _____.

Jesus wants us to have a strong _____ with Him. He backs us with lots of His _____.

Jesus has made all the _____; all we have to do is show up at the office and cash our paycheck of _____.

What do I do with this?

We don't realize it most of the time, but God is _____ _____ for us just as he was for Israel entering the Promised Land.

What gives us the courage to _____ the _____ of life?

The crowd of _____ who are _____ beside us and _____ us to step into the flood.

So, _____ now while it is still today.
